MET WITH SEVERE ACCIDENT
John McSorley, a former resident of Tonopah, where he was engaged in mine operations, and a brother of Mrs. H. R. Cooke, met with a serious accident about ten days ago. While engaged in hydraulic work he fell from a high embankment and sustained a broken hip. He was taken to Stockton and placed in a hospital, where he was given surgical attendance. A part of his hip had to be removed. His recovery will probably consume a year's time.

MILLIONAIRES COMING TO INSPECT PROPERTY

WILL VIEW NEVADA CALIFORNIA POWER PLANT, MINES AND MILLS

Arthur B. West, vice president of the Nevada-California Power company, Southern Sierra Power company, and affiliated corporations, who is acting president since the death of President Delos A. Chapelle in Denver a few weeks ago, whose successor has not yet been elected, will arrive in Goldfield Saturday morning, accompanied by seven heavy financiers of New York City, none of whom is rated at less than a millionaire.

They will come to Tonopah Sunday morning and spend the day here. The coterie is making a trip of inspection of the properties of the affiliated companies and also inspecting the mines and other resources.

They will be the guests of F. H. Bruce, the local manager of the company, and will be shown the local plant as well as escorted through several of the local mines and mills.

SOCIETY CELEBRATES ANNIVERSARY TODAY

VOLUNTEERS OF AMERICA ORGANIZED JUST TWENTY YEARS AGO

The first society of the Volunteers of America was organized twenty years ago today, March 9, 1896, by Ballington Booth, the son of Gen. Wm. Booth. In leaving the parent organization and launching a new and similar movement, Ballington Booth was said to have been animated by a desire for a greater freedom of movement, more local self-control and a lesser social restriction to classes, corresponding to the democratic organization of American society. The Volunteers, like the parent body, adopted a military discipline and methods of work, but the government is democratic and is vested in the grand field council, composed of the officers of or above the rank of major. One of the most important branches of Volunteer activity is the prison work now carried on in more than fifty prisons under the direct supervision of Mrs. Ballington Booth, who has earned the title of "Angel of the Prison."

The "Hope Hall" conducted by the Volunteers have been the means of transforming into useful citizens thousands of discharged convicts.

RAINIER HAS ANOTHER GOOD CARD PREPARED

CONTESTS WILL BE STAGED AT GOLDFIELD NEXT TUESDAY EVENING

The boxing show to be staged at the Goldfield Athletic club Tuesday evening, March 14, gives promise of being one of the best boxing cards ever offered the fans of Tonopah and Goldfield. Gas Rainier, who is the matchmaker for the coming show, has arranged six evenly matched bouts to entertain the fast fans.

The main bout of the evening will be between Danny Matthews, the Goldfield bear cat who has won all his fights, and Frank Harden of Leadville, Colorado. The latter shows up well in his workouts daily and should make things quite interesting for the gold camp's pride.

The old favorite, Freck Lydon, will hook up with Speck Duffy. Freck, a few months ago was considered to be about the best lightweight in the state. He has been taking care of himself lately and is training hard, as he is anxious to regain his lost laurels.

Ralph Witt, whom Rainier declares to be a sure comer, will tangle with Buck O'Brien. Witt beat Sailor Studley in the last show, and by so doing placed himself in the ranks of all the light-followers around here and if he gets by O'Brien will be sent after some good boys.

Kid Burns will get another crack at Charlie Morris. Their last fight was declared to be the second best bout of the evening.

Hyers will meet Red Howard in one of the curtain raisers. Both of these men are middleweights and can deliver a terrific punch. The Goldfield band will entertain the fans between bouts.

COLONEL POSITIVELY IS NOT A CANDIDATE

ROOSEVELT WILL NOT PERMIT FACTIONAL FIGHT IN HIS BEHALF

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Mar. 9.—Col. Roosevelt, who is now in the West Indies, in a statement through the Evening Mail emphatically declines to be a candidate at the primaries in Massachusetts, or in any other state. "I will not enter into any fight for the nomination," the Colonel said. "I will not permit any factional fight to be made in my behalf."
